Learning Together

Introducing the Montessori

Approach to Parents

What are the topics we will we be discussing?

Our course content

Being a parent

Playing with children

Helping children thrive, grow and fully develop

Exploring relationships

Talking with children and partners

Setting boundaries and nurturing independence

Learning about the Montessori classroom

Each session is an interactive discussion forum where everyone has an important opportunity to share and learn. Parents will be making guided, weekly observations of their children with suggested further readings available. All course materials are provided, along with plenty of support and encouragement.
